

PUBLIC LEDGER

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 22, and let us have it.

Mr. Peyton Wheeler of West Fourth street is now able to sit up.

Mr. E. L. Manchester has something to say to another place today about turkeys wanted.

Bobbe Snapp has been advanced and now has charge of a C. and O. through freight engine.

The infant babe of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Campbell died at an early hour this morning at their home in Aberdeen.

Mr. C. W. Day, formerly of Fleming county, now of North Carolina, shipped 75 horses Saturday from this point to his home in the old North State. This is his first visit to Kentucky in twenty years.

Saturday morning Mr. Henry Breeze, in lifting a heavy piece of ice from a box at Charles Breeze's store in Market street, sprained and wrenched his breast and back in such a manner as to confine him to his bed. He is reported better this morning.

The switch engine was derailed Saturday noon in the West End C. and O. Yard. The big crane was brought into use and the engine replaced on the track without any serious damage. No one was hurt, but a lot of time was lost and several yards of rails torn up.

Mr. Cland Newell, Steward on the towboat Harry Brown, stopped off here on her down trip. It was perhaps fortunate that he did, as she struck an Ohio river gale between Cincinnati and Louisville and sank twenty-seven of her boats. A number of the crew were drowned.

Sheriff J. R. Roberson and Councilman J. H. Dorach did some fancy shooting at the gallery Saturday afternoon. Both gentlemen hit the bull's eye three times in succession. Mr. Roberson says he and John Bank can beat any other two riflemen in the city. Here is a chance for some of you crack shots to show your skill with the rifle.

If you are looking for Xmas presents, what do you want. See our Signet Rings, Watch Chains and Lockets; Neck Chains, Cuff Buttons and Tie Holders, Brooches, Watches, Diamond Rings, Studs, Scarf Pins, in fact, everything in the line of Gold and Silver. Our store will be open every night until after Xmas. P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

LUCKY-ESCAPE

Maysville Man Had a Close Call For His Life

Jesse Helmer, a brakeman on this Division of the C. and O., whose home is in the West End, had his right shoulder dislocated and his arm broken at the wrist Saturday morning, and had a fortunate escape from death in an accident which occurred at the coal tippie just below the South Portsmouth Depot.

Helmer was on local freight train No. 63, which backed a cut of coal cars on the tippie. The engineer failed to reduce the speed of the engine and the cars passed over the tippie with such speed that the one Helmer was standing on jumped the track. It was on the very brink of the tippie when a small bolt not two inches in circumference kept it from plunging through.

The sudden impact of the car running into the block to prevent the cars from leaving the tracks caused Helmer to lose his balance and he fell to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet. He alighted on his right shoulder, dislocating it, breaking his arm at the wrist and severely bruising himself.

William Johnson was on the same car with Helmer and he saved himself from serious injury by jumping, alighting on his feet and escaping without a scratch.

The car is in such shape that if it is unloaded it will fall to the ground.

Dr. Sydney Lange of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, is now enjoying himself in Paris, France.

Wanted—1,500 bushels Yellow Corn for immediate shipment. E. L. MANCHESTER, Manager Keystone Commercial Co.

The Danville coal dealers have prepared a list of all persons who owe coal bills, and refuse to sell them any more coal until they settle with the firm they owe.

Rev. John Barbour preached a most excellent and instructive sermon last night at the First Presbyterian to a large and appreciative audience. The Doctor took for a theme the persecution of the chosen people of God, the Jews, and right well did he handle his subject. It was a learned dissertation on the subject, and very much enjoyed by his cultured audience.

TURKEYS. TURKEYS. TURKEYS. TURKEYS. Wanted—5,000 Turkeys; no more; at 12c per pound delivered to our house. E. L. MANCHESTER, Manager Keystone Commercial Co.

MISSTATEMENTS CORRECTED

Lawyer Maxwell Gives Judge Cochran's Relation to Powers Case

CINCINNATI, December 10th, 1905.
Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Maysville, Ky.—Dear Mr. Davis: Friday's Cincinnati papers made some statements relative to Judge Cochran's connection with the Cash Powers case, which were not given out by Mr. Maxwell, and were rather misleading as to the Judge's relation to the case, so Mr. Maxwell gave the reporters the facts as shown by the enclosed clipping from today's Cincinnati Enquirer. I send it to you, thinking you may wish to put it in your paper, so the matter will be corrected as to Judge Cochran. Very truly yours,
ETTA R. EVERETT,
Secretary for Mr. Maxwell.

LEAVES TODAY

For Washington to Present State's Side in the Powers Case

Sunday's Cincinnati Enquirer.

Lawrence Maxwell, Jr., Special Counsel for Kentucky against Caleb Powers, leaves today for Washington to argue the case in the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Maxwell said that the dispatches referring to the participation of the Attorney General of the United States in the argument were misleading. He said that Federal Judge Cochran had filed a statement in the Supreme Court, submitting the certified transcript of the proceedings in his court as his return to the writ of mandamus, and leaving the entire defense in the hands of Caleb Powers's counsel.

They alone will argue the case. Mr. Maxwell said that it was necessary, under the rules of the Supreme Court, to make Judge Cochran nominal respondent to the petition of the Commonwealth for a writ of mandamus, but that he has no personal interest in the questions at issue and no connection therewith, except as a Judge of the United States Court, and that he had simply taken the formal steps which were necessary in his judicial capacity, and which Mr. Maxwell, as counsel for Kentucky, had requested, in order to secure a prompt disposition of the case in the Supreme Court.

Shaving Sets at Ray's for Xmas.

Cartmel's extra teeth without pain.

Master Charles Duke Pearce, son of Cashier C. D. Pearce of the State National Bank, met with an unfortunate accident Saturday afternoon, in which his right arm was broken at the wrist. He was mounted on Mr. Charles B. Davis's pony, and in passing Commerce and Second streets the saddle on which he was seated turned and he was thrown to the ground, sustaining injuries as above stated.

In Illinois the native white illiterates over 21 years of age comprise 2.8% of the population; in Kentucky, 14.3%.

SOME enterprising citizen ought to start lunch rooms on the route between the Business District and the new Postoffice.

THE Courts and the Cincinnati Traction Company have joined hands for a rigid enforcement of the law prohibiting boys from jumping on or off streetcars. If the same thing were done in Maysville, it might save some boy's leg and a damage suit.

BROTHER TOM DAVIS should walk on up to Flemingsburg some of these fine mornings while he is out at Maysville's suburban Postoffice after his mail. He could go back by train.—Times-Democrat.

Thanks for the invite, for there are nowhere on earth a better or more hospitable race of people than those in and around Flemingsburg; and it does look like a shame not to step over and see them when one is so often in the outskirts of the good old town.

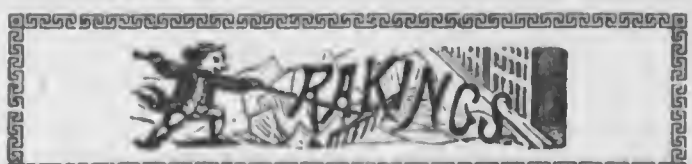

In the matter of illiteracy among native-born citizens, Kentucky leads all her surrounding sisters—Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, West Virginia, Virginia and Tennessee. But what can be expected of a state whose Legislature seriously thinks of placing the statue of a murderer in the Capitol at Washington to the exclusion of such men as ABRAHAM LINCOLN, the BRECKINRIDGES, the CLAYS, the CRITTENDEN'S—or even JEFFERSON DAVIS.

J. J. OSBORNE of Cynthiana, writing to The Courier-Journal, says—

"All of the Burley tobacco produced in the world is produced in some forty-two counties, and all of those counties save four or five are in Central Kentucky. There is but one buyer for this tobacco; that buyer is the American Tobacco Company. There is but one place in the world where it can be bought; that is from the people who produce it."

Beq pardon, Mr. OSBORNE, but what have you done with the large and respectable number of "Independent" factories that buy White Burley? One of the largest has a buyer in this city, and there is also an Independent factory here, as well as a whopping big plant of the American Tobacco Company.

ATTORNEY GENERAL HAYS of Kentucky appears to have torn his Sunday shirt into tatters before he knew what he was talking about. THE LEDGER has already quoted the gentleman as saying that he was "astounded" at the announcement that the Attorney General of the United States would appear in behalf of Judge COCHRAN when the mandamus proceedings open in the Supreme Court of the United States in the matter of jurisdiction in the Caleb Powers case, and that such proceeding was "without precedent." THE LEDGER begs to assure the able Attorney General of Kentucky that he shot his wad through his hat. Judge COCHRAN never expected Attorney General MOODY to appear for him, and never asked him to do so; he simply notified him that the case would be called for argument at a certain time. Only this, and nothing more!

Catholic Standard and Times.
"Perhaps," said the woman-hater, who was visiting the prison, "a woman is responsible for your present condition."
"Oh! twice as bad as that," replied the convict.
"Indeed?"
"Yes; two women. I'm up for bizamy."

WHAT AMBASSADORS SPEND

Their Little Dinners to Royalty and the Smart Set Increase Social and Diplomatic Prestige

With an annual salary of $17,500 a year, the United States Ambassadors in Europe are spending between $100,000 and $150,000 annually to maintain socially the dignity of America. Never before has America been represented in the principal European capitals by so rich a coterie of Ambassadors. Whitelaw Reid in London, Charlemagne Tower in Berlin, Robert McCormick in Paris and George Von L. Meyer in St. Petersburg spend between them $600,000 a year.

The United States embassies, owing to the millionaire ambassadorial corps appointed by President Roosevelt, have now taken first place in the social world in all the four chief European capitals, for the first time in the history of American diplomacy.

Ambassador Reid in London heads the list for munificence. Mr. Reid's town house is in Park Lane, the ultra-fashionable quarter of London, and is considered the finest dwelling in the British capital after the King's Buckingham Palace. The Ambassador pays $45,000 a year rent for it, and he has a summer house at West Park, about forty miles out of London, for which he pays $10,000 a year. It costs Mr. Reid about $25,000 a year to maintain his two establishments, and his entertainment and other expenses bring his total annual expenditure up to nearly $150,000.

Charlemagne Tower, in Berlin, is the first American Ambassador to Germany to rival the magnificence of the British, Russian and Austrian embassies, the trimmings of continental embassy leaders. He pays $18,500 a year for his house rent. He has thirty-seven servants, all wearing gorgeous liveries with a tower for a crest on the buttons. One of Mr. Tower's servants always wears at his side a Turkish scimitar, his badge of office as superior butler. The servant with his scimitar is one of the sights of Berlin. Mr. Tower spends $100,000 a year on entertaining, the most expensive single item being two balls a year, given at Mr. Tower's house. These balls are almost as important as court functions. They are attended by the members of the royal family.

The municipality of Paris awards every second year a silver medal to the most industrious street cleaner.

In a small shop in New York City, managed by a woman, flowers of wonderful coloring are made from the scales of various fish.

The Empress of Germany is passionately fond of flowers, but for some time has favored orchids, of which she possesses a great variety.

Russian immigrants to the number of 33,440 arrived in London during the first nine months of this year. Of these 18,556 remained in the city.

MODERN METHODS

Improve a Remedy That Was Always Peerless in Its Line.

"We are told that the great popularity of Vinol is due to the fact that it is really a new form of a time-tried and old remedy, cod liver oil, now by an elaborate modern process produced without oil, delicious and doubly potent. "We wish every one could realize the fact that Vinol is not a patent medicine. It is simply a new way of administering the curative elements of cod liver oil.

"There is no one living who will dispute the merits of cod liver oil as a tonic re-builder of the human system.

"The trouble has been that but few people could take cod liver oil, on account of the greasy, obnoxious taste and terrible odor.

"With Vinol, however, everything is changed. By a modern method of chemistry you get all the medicinal curative elements found in cod liver oil, in a highly concentrated form, and best of all, without a particle of grease, which has no value, either as a food or medicine.

"The reason Vinol can accomplish so much more good than cod liver oil or emulsions, is because it is so easily assimilated, the weakest stomach can retain it, thus it enriches and purifies the blood and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended.

"In all cases of chronic coughs, bronchitis, severe colds, run down condition, loss of appetite, all derangements of the stomach, etc., we guarantee Vinol to cure or return your money if it fails." JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

EDWARD N. HOYT.

The Chillicothe News of December 6th says: "A competent company presented Hamlet at the Masonic last evening to a representative and well-pleased audience. The title role, as enacted by Edward N. Hoyt, was in the hands of one of the most capable tragedians that has been seen in Chillicothe in a long time. Hamlet's oft-quoted soliloquy was but one of his strong dramatic parts. Mr. Hoyt has a splendid voice and displays a high ability in the dramatic art. Taken all in all it was a most meritorious performance, and highly pleasing to the lovers of Shakespeare."

FREE LECTURE ON WHITE PLAQUE

Dr. Knopf, Famous Authority on Tuberculosis, to Be in Lexington Tuesday Night—Delegations From Surrounding Cities Expected.

The lecture to be delivered by Dr. S. A. Knopf, the famous tuberculosis authority of New York, at the Opera-house in Lexington Tuesday night, December 12th, is of especial interest to the whole of Central Kentucky. Delegations from all surrounding cities are expected to be present. In Lexington one death in every six and a fraction deaths from all causes is due to tuberculosis.

This is little lower than the proportion in the state, and in the entire United States one-tenth of all deaths are due to the disease. This city is contributing its full quota of victims to this alarming mortality rate. The Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis just organized in Lexington invites citizens of all Central Kentucky to unite with it. The movement is fast becoming state-wide, and state legislation is one of the objects.

Dr. Knopf will treat the subject of tuberculosis and means of prevention in a comprehensive way. He avoids technicalities, and the lecture will be as entertaining as profitable. People are awakening to a realization that the menace of tuberculosis extends to their own lives and homes, and wide interest in the lecture of this noted authority is certain to be manifested. It is free, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. O. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them to urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchitis or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

Maysville Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It

After the reader has read the public statement of this representative citizen of Maysville given below, he must fairly, squarely and honestly come to this conclusion. A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the party in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work under similar circumstances. Read this:

M. C. Chisholm, Constable in District No. 2, living at 343 East Second street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills positively cured me of kidney trouble, and I do not hesitate to give them the strongest kind of recommendation. I had been troubled with too frequent action of the kidney secretions, and it disturbed my rest nights. Having my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills I procured them at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore and I noticed an improvement in my condition from the start. My trouble was soon entirely cured. This was some five years ago, and I have had no return of it since. Anyone suffering from difficulties arising from disordered kidneys can make no mistake by using Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 60 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
